Mendelssohn's "Lieder ohne Worte."

CAUTION TO MUSIC PUBLISHERS & MUSIC SELLERS

MENDELSSOHN'S LIEDER OHNE WORTE, Book 1, Op. 19, was composed, written, and first printed in England during the Author's residence in this country, thereby fulfilling the conditions particularized in the statutes regulating copyright; and J. Alfred Novello is therefore advised, by high legal authority, that his copyright in this work can be successfully maintained—which he is fully determined to do against all who may pirate that work, or any other of Mendelssohn's works similarly circumstanced, and against all who may sell such pirated copies. Publishers will do well to bear in mind the wide difference between this case and that of Bellini (Boosey v. Jefferies), lately reversed by the House of Lords, the distinction having been pointed out by the Law Lords in delivering their judgments.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

All Mendelssohn's works will continue to be sold at the reduced prices, now for many years charged for them, by J. Alfred Novello. During the time when the rights of Foreign Authors (who had conferred on the British public the benefit of first printing their works here) were better protected by the legal practice of this country than they are likely to be in future, J. A. Novello thinks he may point out with some pride that he has constantly sold his copyrights at very small prices, without waiting to be forced to reduce them by the indecent scramble consequent on the late deplorable judgment of the House of Lords—a judgment reversing the decisions, and given against the opinions, of a large majority of the Judges of the land.

69, Dean-street, Soho, and 24, Poultry, London;
and 389, Broadway, New York.

FOREIGN MUSIC at a REDUCED PRICE.—Boosey and Sons beg to announce that they have reduced to half price, the Music in Sonnambula, Rigoletto, Ernani, and many other Operas, the copyrights of which belonged to them prior to the late decision of the House of Lords. A Catalogue of all these works is now ready, and may be had, postage free. Boosey and Sons respectfully recommend all musical persons to inspect this Catalogue, as several of the works contained in it are reprinted by other houses at double the prices of Messrs. Boosey's editions, 28, Holles-street, London.

MUSIC SIXPENCE PER SHEET.—Ewer & Co. have resolved, in consequence of the continual complaints of the high price of Music, and the calls for discount, or abatement therefrom, and in order, in a measure, to supersede the incorrect reprints of some of their Publications, to publish and sell all their Music, both copyright and non-copyright, English or Foreign print, at Sixpence per Sheet; and they therefore beg to call the attention of the Musical Public to the fact, that henceforth all Music from their Establishment will only be charged at SIXPENCE PER SHEET, from which price no abatement will be made. At the same time they beg to state, that they will continue as heretofore to bring out their Publication^t in the best possible manner as regards correctness, engraving^s printing, and paper, and that there shall be no lack of exertion on their part to improve as they proceed. London, 390, Oxford-street, 14th August, 1854.

Just Published.

CRYSTAL PALACE.

THE PUBLIC, VISITING THE CRYSTAL PALACE, are invited to inspect the Specimens of Printing, &c. exhibited by J. ALFRED NOVELLO, in the Stationery Court.

The letters on the front of the above case offer some interest as specimens of Typography. The word is formed of many thousand letters in Clarendon Brevier Capitals, detailing some of the peculiarities of cheap music. The word is formed of Type Borders and Flowers. The word contains the melody and words of "Rule Britannia," in the beautiful Pearl-Nonpareil Music Type, which belongs exclusively to the Dean-street Establishment.

CHEAP

MUSIC

J. Alfred Novello, London and New York.

BOYCE'S COLLECTION OF CATHEDRAL MUSIC. The Precentors of Cathedrals, and the Directors of Choirs in "Churches where they sing," are respectfully informed that Dr. Boyce's Work, which has long been considered the most complete and useful collection of English Church Music, is now published in a variety of forms to suit every requirement. The contents and the succession of pieces accord precisely with the original copy, as published by Dr. Boyce, so that Cathedral Choirs, &c., already in possession of copies, may increase their number, in full confidence of the new ones corresponding in every respect. The new editions may be specified as follows, viz.:

I.—The VOCAL SCORE has been reprinted, in its integrity, from Boyce; to which a separate Accompaniment for the Organ has been added under each score by VINCENT NOVELLO. In 3 Vols., bound in whole cloth, 42s. each.

II.—The SEPARATE VOCAL PARTS for each of the four voices—Treble, Alto, Tenor, and Bass—are printed so that one set may serve for eight or twelve persons. The economy of these Parts will be readily appreciated for the use of Choirs, or where numerous singers have to be supplied with copies. Price of each Vocal Part, bound in whole cloth, 25s.

III.—The SEPARATE ORGAN PART (in 2 Vols., price 21s. each), with the words in full between the Treble and Bass staff, will be found useful to those who wish these compositions as Organ Voluntaries, or for those who already possess the old Vocal Score, and to whom playing from score is inconvenient.

It is believed that in many Cathedrals the habit still prevails of making Manuscript Parts from the Vocal Scores; but this must arise from its not being known that good printed copies can now be purchased at less cost than the blank paper to make these manuscripts upon; or, in other words, it requires 3s. 6d. worth of blank paper to contain 3s. worth of printed music at the present reduced prices.

* * Each Service or Anthem may be had separately from this work, either in Score or separate Vocal Parts (Catalogues postage free for two stamps).

J. Alfred Novello, London and New York.

MOZART'S "O GOD WHEN THOU APPEAREST," being an English adaptation to his Motett No. 1, Splendente Te Deus, for four voices, with Organ Accompaniment by Vincent Novello; folio, 2s., octavo, 6d., single vocal parts 1s., orchestral parts, 8s. 6d.

J. A. Novello, London and New York.

For Schools and Singing-Classes.

SILCHER'S MELODIES FOR YOUTH. Arranged by FRANCIS L. SOPER. In order to bring the above Melodies within reach of children attending National, British, and other Schools, they are issued in ten parts, each containing 4 pages of music on thick paper, done up in packets containing 13 copies for 1s. Each copy may therefore be sold for 1d., or may be cut in half, and each leaf sold separately for ½d. Parts I to X, containing from 3 to 7 songs each, are now ready, price 1s. per packet of 13 copies.

The complete Work, 2nd Edition, 1s. 6d., paper covers; 2s. 6d., cloth.
